KINDERHOOK BANK ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF NEW OFFICER LISA DIXON-WATSON, ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT AND BRANCH MANAGER

(Kinderhook, NY – May 10, 2016) Kinderhook Bank Corp. (OTCQB: NUBK) CEO & President, John A. Balli announced that Lisa Dixon-Watson has been appointed to Assistant Vice President & Branch Manager of the Greenport Branch at 96 Union Turnpike (Route 66).

“Lisa began her career in banking almost 25 years ago in the Hudson market and brings excellent customer service and business skills to the position,” said Balli. “Her network and outreach in the community will be a great asset to the Bank as we continue to look to grow our retail market share in Columbia County,” Balli added.

Dixon-Watson started her career in banking in 1992 in retail banking as a teller, and quickly became a Customer Service Representative and Assistant Branch Manager before joining Kinderhook Bank from 2005 to 2010 as Branch Manager in Greenport. She returns to Kinderhook Bank as Assistant Vice President & Branch Manager.

Dixon-Watson graduated from the Columbia County Chamber’s Leadership Class and previously served on the Columbia Economic Development Corp. She currently serves on the Community Economic Vitality Program Advisory Board and the Hudson Housing Advisory Board. Dixon-Watson lives in Coxsackie, NY with her husband Ricardo Watson.

Established in 1853, Kinderhook Bank Corp. is the holding company of Kinderhook Bank, with eight offices in Albany, Chatham, Delmar, East Greenbush, Greenport, Kinderhook, Latham, and Valatie and was recently voted Best Bank 2016 in the Capital Region Living readers’ poll. Member FDIC.
